

QUESTION'S

Poem "IF"

Box Questions and Answers based on the poem "IF" by "Rudyard Kipling"

Box Questions

Box 1: How will you handle the situation if you face failure in your life?

Answer: If I face failure in life, I will stay strong and not lose hope. I will try again with more effort and learn from my mistakes. Like the poem says, I will treat failure calmly and never give up.

Box 2: How will you celebrate success in your life?

Answer: If I succeed, I will stay humble and thankful. I will not show off or become proud. I will keep working hard and help others also achieve their goals.

Reading and Critical Thinking

Questions from the poem "IF" by Rudyard Kipling:

1. According to the poet, how should one respond to criticism and blame?

Answer: The poet says we should stay calm when people blame or criticize us unfairly. We should not become angry or upset and must keep our behavior polite and balanced.

2. What quality does the poem emphasize in handling doubt and self-trust?

Answer: The poem teaches us to believe in ourselves, even when others doubt us. But we should also understand their doubts and stay confident without being proud.

3. What message does the poem give about dreams and aspirations?

Answer: The poem says dreaming is good, but we should not let dreams control us. We must work hard and stay in reality to achieve those dreams.

4. How should a person handle twisted truths and personal losses?

Answer: The poet says that even if others twist our words or we lose something dear, we should stay strong. We must have the courage to start again without complaining.

5. What does the poem suggest about resilience and rebuilding after setbacks?

Answer: The poem tells us to be brave and keep going even after failure. We should rebuild our life with strength and not worry about what we lost.

6. According to the poem, how should one persist in difficult times?

Answer: In hard times, we should keep going with our willpower, even if our body feels tired. We must not quit and should stay strong from the inside.

7. What is the message of the poem regarding integrity and humility in life?

Answer: The poem teaches us to stay honest and humble. We should talk kindly with both rich and poor, and never let pride or hate control our actions.