

Unit 8: The Impact of Globalisation on Culture and Economy

QUESTION ANSWER

Box Questions with Answer:

Box 1: What does "digital globalisation" refer to, based on the introduction?

Ans: Digital globalisation means the use of internet and technology to connect people and countries. It helps in sharing ideas, cultures, and information around the world quickly.

Box 2: How does globalisation facilitate labour mobility?

Ans: Globalisation creates job opportunities in many countries, so skilled workers can move from one country to another for better jobs, wages, and working conditions.

Box 3: How does globalisation contribute to cultural exchange?

Ans: Globalisation allows people to learn about other cultures through social media, TV, and online platforms. This helps them understand, respect, and appreciate different lifestyles.

Box 4: What are some educational opportunities created by digital globalisation?

Ans: Digital globalisation gives students access to online courses, virtual classrooms, and global teachers. It helps them learn about new cultures, languages, and ideas.

Exercise Questions with Answers:

1. What is globalisation and how does it promote economic growth?

Ans: Globalisation is the process of connecting countries through trade, technology, and culture. It promotes economic growth by increasing exports, foreign investment, and job creation.

2. How has globalisation impacted Pakistan's economy in terms of trade and investment?

Ans: Globalisation has opened markets for Pakistani products like textiles and rice. It also brings foreign investment, such as CPEC, which helps improve industries and create jobs.

3. What are some of the new job opportunities created in Pakistan as a result of globalisation?

Ans: Jobs in IT, telecommunications, and manufacturing have increased. These jobs often offer better salaries and working conditions than traditional local jobs.

4. What is cultural exchange, and how does it benefit people?

Ans: Cultural exchange means learning about other countries' traditions and values. It builds understanding, removes stereotypes, and helps people respect differences.

5. What concerns are raised about the preservation of traditional Pakistani culture in the context of globalisation?

Ans: People worry that by following global trends, we may forget our own culture, language, and traditions. It is important to keep our culture alive while learning from others.

6. How has globalisation expanded access to information for students?

Ans: Students can now use the internet, online articles, and videos to learn about the world. This helps them understand different cultures and stay updated with global knowledge.

7. How does learning about diverse perspectives benefit students?

Ans: It helps students think in new ways, become more open-minded, and understand people from different backgrounds. This prepares them for global citizenship.

8. How can understanding globalisation help the young Pakistani students contributing to their country's future?

Ans: Understanding globalisation helps students make smart choices in education and careers. It also helps them support Pakistan's economy and protect its cultural identity.